

Why choose h&h?

- We are a Nationally Registered Training Organisation with over 20 years' experience in teaching and training for business and the aged care, disability and childcare industries;
- We have strong relationships with industry employers, which facilitates successful employment outcomes and opportunities;
- Choose how you learn (classroom, distance or traineeship);
- We offer small, hands-on learning groups, with no more than 20 students in any class;
- We offer support in all areas of study, work experience, resume and cover letter writing, and interview processes, with email support available six days a week (24-hour turnaround);
- Our trainers and staff have extensive industry knowledge and speak a variety of languages to support all our students;
- We offer Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Credit Transfer (CT) for students with qualifying previous study;
- All courses offer nationally recognised qualifications; and
- We offer payment plans to suit your financial needs.

Want to know more?

If you want to learn more about h&h, the other courses we offer and find out how to enrol, simply visit our website, or call us to chat to one of our friendly staff members.

h&h Accredited Training Australasia Inc.

Web: www.hnh.org.au

Phone: (02) 9682 0100

Email: granville@hnh.org.au

College opening hours: Monday to Saturday,
8.30am to 4.30pm.

Certificate IV in Disability (CHC43115)

Nationally Registered Training Organisation | RTO ID: 90784

Certificate IV in Disability

CHC43115

Take an advanced step in your disability care career

About this Certificate

This training empowers you to take an advanced step forward in your disability care career. It provides you with the knowledge and skills to take on roles where you are managing and/or supervising others. Graduates of this course are permitted to work without direct supervision and may be required to coordinate a small team. Roles can include Case Worker/ Supervisor, Disability Support Worker/ Supervisor and Community Support Worker/Supervisor.

Key elements of this course include*:

- Providing individualised support;
- Facilitating the empowerment of people with disability;
- Facilitating community participation and social inclusion;
- Providing services to disabled people with complex needs;
- Managing legal and ethical compliance;
- Following safe work practices for direct client care;
- Mandatory 120 hours work placement; and
- Supporting relationships with carers and family.

* Please visit our website to view full course elements.

“I have gained the confidence and experience required to work with people with disabilities. I felt the class size was just right and I have enjoyed my time at h&h.”

Moigua Harold Konneh

Former student, Certificate IV in Disability
CHC43115

“The college is very diverse, the staff is welcoming and willing to help. My trainer is very informative and the study materials were easy to follow. This course has opened opportunities for me.”

Lawrinda Sackey

Former student, Certificate IV in Disability
CHC43115

Why choose this course?

Disability workers make a profound difference to the lives of thousands of people across Australia every day. This course qualifies participants to advance their role as a disability worker in the community and/or residential setting, or in a manager or supervisor position.

What you'll receive

This course includes both academic and practical components that will prepare you for advancing your career within the disability care sector. It is made up of 14 units, of which there are 11 mandatory units and three elective units. These can be taken at our campus in Granville (34 weeks), as a Distance Learning Course (12 months) or as a Traineeship (18-24 months).

h&h Accredited Training offers weekday, weekend and evening classroom study options. Smart & Skilled Funding is available for eligible students (this training is subsidised by the NSW Government). Contact us to find out more.

